U. S. SENATE BEGINS DISCUSSION OF THE PEACE PACT

FOOTBALL LEADER IS NOT REAL HERO SAYS REV. SHOLL IN ELOQUENT SERMON

Is the One Who Keeps His Eyes on the Goal of Duty.

SERVICES ARE HELD ON THE CHURCH LAWN

Musical Program is Led by Otto Fischer. Large Congregation Present

Before a large congregation, Rev. W. N. Sholl, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Decatur, last night preached an eloquent sermon on "Spiritual Athletics," at the open air service on the church lawn. Music was led by Otto Fischer.

His sermon follows: Text: "But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness."—1 Tim. 4:7.

The best cure for something bad is something better. The evils that infest society are to be remedied by a process of substitution. Our text is an illustration of the truth just stated. It proposes to substitute something big for something little, an eternal possession for a passing fad, a solid truth for a flimsy pretext. It is only one illustration of a great spiritual truth, that frivolities, follies, crimes and debaucheries pass out of human lives as nobler things come in and take their places. We are not born with goodness, nor is it thrust upon us. We pass from sin to holiness, God helping us, by a process of spiritual athletics. Just as the athlete goes repeatedly into the gymnasium and by work with the parallel bars, weights, Indian clubs, rings, and dumb bells, develops a strong and graceful body, so the Christian using the spiritual forces that the Creator has given him, attains a strong, noble and symmetrical soul.

It is hardly worth while to state which of these two processes is more important. A good physique is a great asset in any calling. "For performance of mark it needs great bodily health," says Emerson. "Sickness is poor spirit and cannot serve any one; it must husband its resources to live." But soul strength is vastly more important than a good physique. Our boys and girls need to learn that after all the real hero of life is not the captain of the football team, the baseball star, the golf champion, or the tennis wizard, but he who has beheld the heavenly vision of truth and duty, and has not been disobedient to its imperious call.

There are a number of things that greatly aid in the building up of the athlete's body. The same general principles, spiritually applied, are also of very great help to the spiritual athlete as he exercises himself unto godliness. Considering them together and using the former merely by way of illustrating the latter, we call attention first to:

Need of Good Gymnasium
With the ancient Greeks the development of the human body was a master passion, and it is but natural that they should have laid great stress upon the gymnasium. To them it was almost half a human education. "Every town had its gymnasium, its baths, its racing track on a scale hardly conceivable by us." Wonderful instruments were afforded through which the body could try out and develop its forces. The finest athletes in our own land are those who have access to a really worth while gymnasium.

Princeton University takes a fine stand in athletics, and those of us who have seen the magnificent appointed gymnasium of that institution are not surprised. Now the spiritual athlete with his wonderful God given powers of heart, conscience, soul and will needs highly efficient instruments through which his powers can be tried out and developed, and God has wonderfully provided in His Holy Word a perfect gymnasium in which the spiritual athlete can train. Though old as men count age, it is not out of date, or shabby, or inadequate equipment that the spiritually ambitious soul here finds.

THE UNION OF FIUME AND ITALY PROCLAIMED AS ALLIED COUNCIL DEBATES

Disposition of Vexed Territorial Question is Taken Up Today at Paris.

(International News Service)

London, Sept. 15.—The Italian general at Fiume has been arrested and a union of Fiume and Italy has been proclaimed, said a dispatch from Belgrade today.

(International News Service)

Paris, Sept. 15.—The troublesome Fiume question, involving rival claims by Italy and Jugo-Slavia, was taken up by the allied supreme council today. The American, British and French attitude is that Fiume is a question the Italians must settle themselves, although it is admitted that the situation is most delicate and that there is a possibility that it might precipitate civil war throughout Italy. The situation has been further complicated by the action of Gabriele d'Annunzio, who led a number of armed Italians into Fiume.

LOCAL SCHOOLS OPEN FOR YEAR

Excellent corps of teachers have been obtained by both schools for the 1919-20 terms.

Teachers Surprised
The teachers of the Second Ward school in south Albany met with a pleasant surprise this morning by finding the hall-way of the building brightly decorated in patriotic bunting and flags in honor of their coming and in each room two vases, gifts of the Improvement association, filled with flowers and the following card on the desk: "These vases are presented to the room by the School Improvement association, a wish that the teacher of this room may have an experience equal in beauty to the flowers that they contain."

A number of mothers were waiting to greet the teachers as they arrived to express their appreciation in advance of their worth and work. "The first Parent-Teacher meeting will be Wednesday, September 17 and a large attendance is expected. Be on hand by two-thirty," said an announcement today by Mrs. S. G. McCluney, President of the School Improvement association.

Troup, tax collector; one daughter, Mrs. F. L. Carswell, both of Albany-Decatur.

Several local members of the legislative committees of the craftsmen are in Montgomery this week in the interest of measures endorsed by organized labor.

ALBANY'S CHIEF NOW RIDES IN A CAR

CHEVROLET BOUGHT FOR USE OF CHIEF OF POLICE HENDRICKS.

Albany has taken another jump toward metropolitanism and today Chief of Police Newt Hendricks is riding in a handsome Chevrolet runabout.

The car was bought by the city for the use of the police chief in watching over the law observance of the city and street work now being done by street hands. Sherman street from the Somerville road to the east loop street car line is the first of the streets to be built under the direction of the new police head. The street has been almost impassable because of the mud. It is being filled in and will be made one of the best of the unpaved thoroughfares in the city.

MOTORISTS HAVE BUSY SUNDAY WHEN THEY FIND HARTSELLE ROAD BLOCKED

Motorists who attempted to traverse the Hartselle pike Sunday found themselves involved in an intricate maze when they attempted to detour on finding that the pike had been closed by Contractor Burleson, who is now engaged in building the stretch of highway from Albany to Hartselle. No detour signs had been placed on the road, and in consequence the various drivers used their own judgment in selecting the best route around the obstruction. The result was that some of the drivers had new and unexpected experiences and spent several rather unpleasant hours in cutting in and backing out. It was stated today that the only way to avoid the obstruction is to go by Austinville and Cedar Lake, and the sledding along this thoroughfare is not ideal. It is not known how long it will be necessary to keep the road blocked.

WILSON ARRIVES AT PORTLAND WITH HIS LABOR POLICY READY TO BE MADE PUBLIC

President Spent All of Sunday With His Little Typewriter

SET ADDRESS IS ON PROGRAM FOR TONIGHT

Lodge Says Treaty To Be Kept on Calendar Until Disposed Of.

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—With senators favoring reservations to the treaty of Versailles still divided as to the form these reservations should take, the senate this afternoon took up the monumental task of disposing finally of the bulky complex document. From six to eight weeks at least are expected to elapse before the outcome of the bitter fight over ratification of the treaty without change is indelibly written on one of the most momentous pages of American history. In calling the treaty up, Senator Lodge announced that he proposed to keep it continuously before the senate until it was ratified or rejected in its present form.

(International News Service.)

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 15.—President Wilson landed in Portland today with his labor policy fully determined. He spent all of yesterday afternoon secluded in his apartment at the hotel at Seattle. All of that time he spent utilizing the famous little typewriter upon which he has written all of his war messages to congress. As a result, it is expected today that the invitation to attend the coming labor congress in Washington will be forthcoming during the present week. It is possible to state that the president plans to make the leaders of the labor movement in the U. S., the capitalists whose names talk when money is mentioned and the farmers who hold the balance of power, get out into the open and state what they are willing to do during the next year to restore the economic stability of the world and the U. S. On the question of unions for civil servants, the president is expected to take a very strong position. The President's train reached Portland shortly after 6 o'clock and the party detained for a long motor ride at 9 o'clock. The President will deliver a set address tonight.

The trip is more than half over, as the last scheduled address is to be made in Louisville, Ky., two weeks from tonight. It is expected that in his address in San Francisco the President may see fit to directly reply to some of the statements that his senatorial opponents who are "following his trail" have been making.

NEGRO IS HELD ON BURGLARY CHARGE

Isaiah Jackson, negro, was placed in jail Sunday on a charge of burglary after he had told Sheriff May that he would "die and go to h—" before he would accompany the official to the county bastille.

Non-Union Teachers Bullied at Linton

(International News Service.) LINTON, Ind., Sept. 15.—With threats of white capping, Ku Klux tactics and the use of the historic rail flying in the streets here, this city today awaited the outcome of attempts of 18 non-union school teachers to go to work despite reports that union pickets would bar their way.

GOMPERS SAYS NO GENERAL STRIKE ON BOSTON PROGRAM

(International News Service.)

BOSTON, Sept. 15.—Announcement having been made by a lieutenant of President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor that there would be no general strike, Boston awaited the "important announcement" that was promised for today in connection with the police strike.

Despite the assurance that there would be no sympathetic strike, several Boston unions seemed to be preparing today for that very thing. Many of the locals took secret ballots, which were sent to the central labor union. A telegram from Governor Coolidge to President Gompers, the latest in their series of exchanges, did not indicate that the Governor had receded the slightest from his position that the men's jobs were "vacant."

CONFERENCE HELD

(International News Service.)

BOSTON, Sept. 15.—Police Commissioner Curtis today went into conference with Frank McCarthy, organizer for the American Federation of Labor; President John H. McInness, of the policemen's union, and other labor officials. Mr. Curtis received the leaders as citizens.

TWO JUDGES HERE TO HOLD COURT

Morgan county today boasted of a superfluity of judges in the Circuit court when Judge Horace C. Wilkinson and Judge Romaine Boyd, both of Birmingham, appeared here to preside this week for Judge Kyle, who is ill.

Judge Wilkinson presided last week but had asked Chief Justice Anderson of the Supreme court for relief to allow him to move his household effects from Montgomery to Birmingham. Judge Wilkinson recently was named a judge of the Birmingham circuit while he was serving as assistant attorney general.

Justice Anderson ordered Judge Boyd here to relieve Judge Wilkinson, but the latter failed to receive the information until he had made arrangements to preside here this week. Both came on from the Magic City to Decatur.

Judge Wilkinson will hold court here this week and Judge Boyd will return next Monday to preside.

GOVERNOR COOLIDGE A SECOND OLE HANSON

Governor Coolidge, of Massachusetts, by his vigorous suppression of the strike of Boston policemen, has convinced the nation that he is something more than a politician. His energetic action compares favorably with that of Ole Hanson, former mayor of Seattle, who broke a general strike by displaying a whole lot of backbone and patriotism. No more positive communication has recently been made public than the telegram sent by Governor Coolidge to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in which he so strongly upheld the sovereignty of the commonwealth that he serves. This telegram was as follows:

Reply to your telegram, I have already refused to remove the Police Commissioner of Boston; I did not appoint him. He can assume no position which the courts would uphold except what the people have by the authority of their law vested in him. He speaks only with their voice. The right of the police of Boston to affiliate has always been questioned, never granted, is now prohibited. The suggestion of President Wilson to Washington does not apply to Boston. There the police have remained on duty. Here the Policemen's Union left their duty, an action which President Wilson characterized as a crime against civilization.

Your assertion that the commissioner was wrong cannot justify the wrong of leaving the city ungarded. That furnished the opportunity; the criminal element furnished the action. There is no right to strike against the public safety by anybody, anywhere, at any time.

You ask that the public safety again be placed in the hands of the same policemen while they continue in disobedience to the laws of Massachusetts, and in their refusal to obey the orders of the police department. Nineteen men have been tried and removed. Others having abandoned their duty, their places have, under the law, been declared vacant on the opinion of the Attorney-General. I can suggest no authority outside the courts to take further action.

I wish to join and assist in taking a broad view of every situation. A grave responsibility rests on all of us. You can depend on me to support you in every legal action and subject policy. I am equally determined to defend the sovereignty of Massachusetts and to maintain the authority and jurisdiction over her public officers where it has been placed by the constitution and laws of her people.

The concluding paragraph of the telegram stamps the Governor as a man of broad views, despite his determination not to yield a principle. He recognizes the gravity of the situation, yet does not show a disposition to compromise with those who would break down the barriers of law, whether by means of the strike or by some other method.

SENATE FINALLY BEGINS CONSIDERATION OF TREATY

The present week will be a memorable one in the history of the United States senate, for it will mark the beginning of the actual consideration of the Versailles peace treaty. Though the historic document was completed some months ago, and although reconstruction and the return of normal conditions depends upon its final disposition, republican senators have not seen fit to expedite action upon it. On the other hand, they have devoted all their energies to playing politics and to oratorical jangling that was intended to influence the next presidential election. All of this was unfortunate, but it is a good omen that the debating of the treaty, section by section, has at last begun. This wind-jamming is a slow and serious business with the members of the great American forum, and it may be assumed that some months will elapse before the treaty is rejected, ratified or completely mutilated. The latter will likely be the outcome, unless President Wilson succeeds in bringing strong pressure to bear upon the law givers by the plain people. It would not be good politics for the republicans to arbitrarily reject the treaty and thereby repudiate the action of America's peace commissioners, nor is it considered expedient by the republicans to endorse the document as a whole, for it was written largely by a democratic president. What they will attempt to do—and they may succeed—is to adopt dismembering reservations, and to disguise their death-thrusts as cleverly as they may.

CAR SHORTAGE PROBLEM IS EASILY SOLVED

The United States railroad administration, beset with many complexities from the day it assumed control of the nation's rail system, is now confronting a new problem—a shortage of freight cars. That this shortage is acute is testified by the largest industrial concerns of the country, by a number from the Birmingham district. Newspaper publishers can add a word or two, for a news print famine practically exists now, and the jobbers are frank to admit that one of the underlying causes is the inability to secure cars in which to ship the paper after it is manufactured by the mills. Most any person of ordinary horse sense could find a solution for this new difficulty. All that is necessary is to build more cars. Wonder why the railroad administration never thought of it, or if they did why they didn't give the necessary orders that would have set the construction crews to work?

Misses Bush's Suit vs. Road Settled

The suit of Misses Lorena and Alrick Bush against the Louisville and Nashville railroad company was settled by agreement today. The case grew out of an alleged failure of a passenger train to stop and allow the plaintiffs to get off at the Louisville and Nashville depot in Albany. The plaintiffs were represented by E. C. Nix.

JUST IN PASSING

MORE TRUE THAN POETRY

"It is amusing how so often the mixed descriptions of the mountaineers of Carolina are really nearer right than we first think," said Mrs. Kimball B. Jones, who has just returned from Weaverville, N. C. "The woman with whom I boarded entertained her guests very often with tales of the residents of the neighboring hills. According to one of her stories the husband of a certain woman became violently ill. Of course there was very little to eat on the place and soon conditions became serious. The woman finally went to my landlady seeking food which was given. In explaining her errand, the woman said: 'You know Miss Lu, my husband's stomach is just financially ruined!'"

Ruotolo's Masterpiece Presented to Cardinal Mercier in New York

(International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—One of the many gifts which Cardinal Mercier will carry back home with him is a bas-relief entitled "Belgium—and Jesus Wept," the work of Onorio Ruotolo, the New York sculptor, whose recently completed bust of the noted prelate, which he calls "The Prince of Sorrow," attracted worldwide attention.

Ruotolo completed the bas-relief for the special purpose of giving it to Cardinal Mercier. It is cast in bronze and shows a pain-racked figure of Christ, weeping, with head turned aside. In the background a procession of bowed Belgian widows and orphans pass by, while above the figures hover the dark clouds of war.

The young sculptor had intended to personally present the bronze to Cardinal Mercier, but a few days before the prelate arrived Ruotolo was stricken seriously ill and was forced to undergo an abdominal operation. A committee of Italian priests handed Cardinal Mercier the bas-relief.

Ruotolo has executed many types that have been pronounced excellent by experts.

Football Leader is Not Real Hero Says Rev. Sholl

needed no revision, the spiritual principles of the Old Testament that grew up around them, the Beatitudes and all the rich teachings of Jesus afford the finest possible apparatus upon which the spiritual athlete can act. It is vain to look elsewhere. All other moral codes and man made spiritual principles fall far below these.

"We search the world for truth, we call

"The good, the pure, the beautiful

"From graven stone and written scroll,

"From the flower fields of the soil

"And weary seekers for the best,

"We come back laden from our quest

"To find that all the sages ever said

"Is in the Book our mothers read.

Well did the Psalmist exclaim of the spiritual athlete's gymnasium, "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether."

Let us consider second,

Need of Self Denial

Epictetus in speaking of a good athlete says that he should live on spare food, abstain from confections, cold water or wine, and that he should avoid late hours and enervating social engagements.

Very interesting indeed is the recent testimony of the great ball player, Cy Young. When asked what had kept him in the major leagues so long, he said, "Taking care of myself. I never touch stimulants, and as for smoking I found I was much better physically after I quit smoking. Cigarettes ruin more ball players than sore arms ever did."

The athlete's denials become the athlete's powers. His crosses are the steps that lead to his throne. This is eminently true of the spiritual athlete. He must be a man of self denial if he is to be a christian of power. "Except a man deny himself and take up his cross daily, and follow me he cannot be my disciple." "They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the lust thereof." "By whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world."

In this last grand statement of Paul true of the average professing Christian of today? The most charitable critic could not possibly answer in the affirmative. The world is defied rather than crucified by many of the present day followers of the Cross. If the saints in past ages trying to get nearer to God made themselves so uncomfortable, are not many modern disciples in trying to keep near the world making themselves too comfortable? A crossless christianity is a powerless christianity, just as a self indulgent athlete is really no athlete. The Cross of Christ was really his highest earthly throne. It was there that He poured out His greatest blessing upon mankind. As the poetry so quaintly puts it,

"The flower that Bethlehem saw bloom

"Out of a heart so full of grace

"Gave never forth its full perfume

"Until the cross became its vase."

Jesus, in His Death, verified His own wonderful words, "Except a grain of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone, but if it lie it bringeth forth much fruit. So must it be with His disciples. The great christian must be great in self denial.

Again let us note,

Need Continuous Exercise

No good athlete is spasmodic in his exercise. He does not attempt to rest upon his laurels right in the midst of his career. Regularly and patiently he keeps at his task. His final supremacy or marked efficiency is just the result of a long series of lessons faithfully taken. It is just so with the spiritual athlete. His exercises unto godliness are not a mere flash of the pan performance, arising here and there, whose power is soon gone, or strong strokes of virtue followed by seasons of moral torpor and spiritual stagnation; they are rather the faithful continuous doing in a christian spirit of the duties that God sets each day in his pathway.

Often these duties are monotonous and exacting, and their performance full of disappointment and discouragement. But each is adding its bit to the great result that God and the athlete are working out, a beautiful christian character. Every lesson in the gymnasium helps the athlete. So, every exercise in faith, love, purity, kindness, truth, long suffering helps the spiritual athlete and helps with all its power.

Failure to apprehend this truth has brought about many a sad failure in the great work of christian character building. Men have trusted the warm and brilliant glow of their first spiritual emotions to carry them forward to the blessed consummation of a finished christian character. They discounted the plogging, every day ex-journeying to the promised land of the soul—they fell out by the way. The same is he who heard the word and anon with joy received it but by and by he was "drowned." Demas was a brilliant beginner, but an inexcusable quitter, and he is remembered only as the scattered wreck of his christian faith. The same might be said of Saul and Sampson, of Hymeneus and Philetus, who concerning the faith suffered shipwreck, men of magnificent beginnings and tragic endings, men who broke down before the acid test of the continuous every day requirements of godliness.

"Heaven is not reached at a single bound,
"But we build the ladder by which we climb
"From the lowly earth to the vaulted skies,
"And we mount the summit round by round."

Note, last,
Athlete's Need of Audacity.

The athlete will never attain distinction as long as he avoids the more strenuous and daring feats of the gymnasium. To achieve the extraordinary, he must have the spirit of dash and adventure, reaching out for the more difficult things that the ordinary man is not willing to attempt. As he makes these magnificent physical ventures; he becomes magnificently athletic. Let us not confuse, however, audacity with foolhardiness. There are physical feats achieved early in life great spiritual distinction. It is true,

"There are depths of love that I cannot know,
"Till I cross the narrow sea;
"There are heights of joy that I may not reach,
"Till I rest in peace with thee.

But, there are heights and depths of christian living that we might know in the life that now is, if we were only willing to leave behind the tamer exercises of christian faith, and reach up towards its nobler requirements, or, if in the words of Paul, we were ready if necessary, "to suffer the loss of all things and count them but refuse that we may gain Christ."

A RISING Sinking FUND

Any fund that's being saved to pay a debt is called a sinking fund. And many such funds seem very slow indeed in mounting as high as the debt which they are to pay on.

But a Certificate of Deposit will help a sinking fund to rise! Every additional sum that's saved may earn a fraction of itself to contribute to the necessary total. A splendidly safe practical way to work off a debt.

PROHIBITION IS CAUSE OF JAILORS LOSING JOBS

(International News Service.) LAWRENCE, Mass., Sept. 15.—The jailors at the Lawrence County jail will soon be jobless. Within a month a large number of employees of the House of Correction will be discharged for want of duties. At present there are only thirty prisoners at the jail, and the county pays seven men to take care of them. In other years before prohibition cut down the volume of prisoners there was plenty of help for the farms.

QUEER FISH HAS HORNS, LEGS, AND GILLS ON TAIL

(International News Service.) OSCEOLA, In., Sept. 15.—Some very peculiar fish have been caught in a pool on the Conley farm, near here, and one of them is now on display in a jar in a window here. Despite the fact that hundreds have examined the fish, no one can identify it. It is four inches long, and its color and shape resembles a catfish. It has gills, and fins on the top of its tail. It also had horns on its head, and four legs similar to a frog.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

First Step in Treatment is a Brisk Purgative With Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets that are Nausealess, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nausealess calomel tablet called Calotabs, and which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed time, with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Drugists sell Calotabs only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Your money will be cheerfully refunded if you do not find them delightful. (Adv.)

DELIGHTED WITH WHAT DRECO DID

Suffered For Years With Stomach Trouble, Nervousness, Pains in Back and Limbs, Dizziness and Constipation. All Gone Now.

"I have just finished taking a bottle of Dreco, and it has made me feel so much better and stronger that I can do all my own household work," said Mrs. M. Blair of Route 1, Huntville, Ala. "Before I began taking Dreco," she continued, "I was in a terribly run-down condition; couldn't eat anything, hardly, and didn't sleep much. My trouble started several years ago, and although I tried many different things, nothing seemed to do any good. I was almost a physical wreck. After eating I would feel all bloated and with sour gas, and my heart would beat so fast sometimes I would think it was going to jump out of my body. This made me very nervous and I was easy to get excited. I felt so bad that I couldn't take any interest in things. Nearly every day I would read in the newspapers about what Dreco had done for others, and many cases just stirred my symptoms exactly, so I talked the matter over with my husband, and we decided to give Dreco a trial. After a few days it began to bring me up, and I knew I had at last found the right thing my system needed. I am now so much better that I can eat most anything I want, and as much as I want, and do not feel any bad effects at all. My husband says I sleep like a log, and he can hardly wake me in the mornings. I never have a headache now and feel strong and well. I am delighted with what Dreco did for me. When the liver, kidneys or bowels become inactive the system fails to throw off the poisons, and slowly, day by day, we are weakening our bodies till a breakdown comes. Sometimes it takes the form of the above case. Dreco causes the organs to carry off these toxins and waste matter and keep the system free of these poisons. Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by—"

Keeping friend Husband's Admiration

Has it ever occurred to you that there is a close relationship between admiration and laundry service?

Admiration springs not alone from charm of manner. It has its origin equally in physical grace; it is awakened in men by that quality in woman called daintiness—that quality which is a combination of complexion, of carriage, of trimness, of hands well kept. Friend Husband was attracted by them in the beginning—and he admires them yet.

But nothing is so ruinous to daintiness as the toil of washday; the bending over washboards and the coarsening of hands that comes from contact with heavy soap and wash water. More than all other household duties, the family washing is destructive of personal charm.

Yet this wastage of the daintiness that is yours is needless in this day and age. If you will but say the word we will do the washing for you—do it economically and as thoroughly as you would yourself.

Try us. Let us relieve you of the noisome labor of washday. Just telephone and we will have our driver call.

"Excuse me a moment, please, while I answer the telephone."

Answer Your Telephone Promptly

One habit that will do much to help improve the quality of your telephone service is the habit of answering your telephone promptly.

Promptness in answering is a courtesy that your telephone caller appreciates—delay may cause him to abandon the call.

In one large city records show that on nearly seven out of every 100 telephone calls there is a delay of more than a minute before the called party answers. This occurs thousands of times daily, and in one-fourth of the cases the party calling does not wait.

To help yourself and others to receive a better quality of telephone service, why not make it an invariable rule to answer your telephone promptly?

MARY PICKFORD HAS THREE LEADING MEN—DELITE TODAY

Famous Star Finely Supported in
"Johanna Enlists"

Mary Pickford has three leading men in her support in her newest Arterit picture, "Johanna Enlists," which will be presented at the Delite theatre today. At least there are three important male roles, but as Douglas MacLean wins Mary in the closing scenes, he is officially designated as the lead. The other roles are taken by Emory Johnson and Monte Blue, two well-known juveniles. It is the third Pickford-Arterit film directed by William D. Taylor and "Mary's Lambs," officially known as the 143rd Regiment, United States Field Artillery, figure prominently in the filmplay.

During the filming of the picture Miss Pickford was awarded the honor of leading the grand march at the biggest dance ever given in the West—a Red Cross open-air ball given by the Los Angeles Produce Exchange. The ball occurred at the Los Angeles Wholesale Terminal, the largest place of its kind in the world, the truck gardeners come to sell their produce to the commission men. There were fifteen thousand in attendance, with 2,500 couples in the grand march, which was headed by Miss Pickford and Dustin Farnum.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST AT MASONIC MONDAY

If you are a pretty girl, and if you see an attractive automobile, just appropriate it. Then, when you are arrested merely marry the policeman—and you are safe. In "Fair Enough" Margarita Fisher's new, and very funny farce, to be seen at Masonic theatre on Monday, she demonstrates how there is a way out of all difficulties—if one is pretty.

She is the care-free, whimsical daughter of parents with high social ambitions and she outwits a pride, prim and punctilious governess in order to be her own, untrammelled self. She turns all conventional tenets topsy-turvy; plays havoc with her father's finances; gives picnics to horde of street gamblers; falls in love with a policeman, at first sight, and runs the gauntlets of dangers and escapades until she is finally apprehended for purloining a racing car. Then, the clever way of getting out of her fix is well worth seeing.

In the cast are Jack Mower, leading man; "Bull" Montana, the "ugliest man on the screen," who has been seen in many Fairbanks pictures; Harry McCoy, the comedian; Eugene Forde, J. Farrell McDonald and other screen favorites.

WILLIAM DESMOND IN "A SAGE BRUSH HAMLET" STAR THEATRE TODAY

They called him "Locoed Larry,"—and he earned the monicker by being the prize spendthrift and boozehound of the cattle country. Dutton took him for a "nut,"—just as Larry wanted him to—for Dutton was a bad actor and Larry had a score to settle with him. When Larry fell heir to a beautiful and innocent young lady—wished on him by a misguided relative—he had reason to be "locoed." See William Desmond in a rollicking comedy-drama that breezes through five reels of snappy action.

STROLLERS QUARTETTE COMING TO THE MASONIC THEATRE ALL THIS WEEK

The Strollers Quartette direct off the Interstate Circuit is one of the attractions with the Al Shaffer Musical Comedy company that will open a week's engagement tonight at the Masonic theatre.

This Quartette composed of Messrs Davenport-Stegal-Kain and Chapman really sing what you may call Close Harmony. Their voices are all trained—and blend nicely together. They will sing a medley of all the popular airs as well as several classical selections, changing their program nightly.

The Shaffer Show carries fifteen people, featuring pretty girls in abundance costumed with the finest of costumes and funny comedians. Mr. Homer Meachum, principal comedian is one of the funniest of the funny and will keep the audience in one continual road from the start to the finish. Miss Dot Moore, charming little soubrette sings the "Blues" as they haven't been sung before. Kain and Kain, harmony singers, George Fares, all are special features with the company.

Special scenery and electrical effects are carried for each night.

An entire change of program daily will be given.

Reporters and Copy Readers At New Haven Out

(International News Service.)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 15.—

Reporters and editors employed on New Haven's four newspapers went on strike today to enforce demands for an 8-hour working day and a minimum wage of $5.00 per day for reporters and $6.00 a day for desk men.

The strike followed the organization a week ago of the News Writer Equity association, with a member reported to include every newspaper man in New Haven except the managing editors of the four papers.

Attack Launched On Irish Policy

LONDON, Sept. 15.—The Northcliffe press today attacked the government policy of suppression against the Sinn Fein in Ireland.

"The present attempt to hold down Ireland will fail and is only added to the long catalogue of waste, not b. military methods can a settlement be affected," said the Daily Mail.

The Times calls it "a very grave advance along the path of suppression and the very bankruptcy of statesmanship."

Four-Year Search for a Spouse Unsuccessful Appeals for Help

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 15.—Despite the fact that Newton Roberts has been exposing himself to matrimony for four years, Cupid has never treated him kindly.

Roberts has appealed to a local newspaper for assistance that might win him a wife.

Blond girls between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five years will find themselves at a decided disadvantage in seeking Newton's hand—his preference is a girl of the brunette type—but, as he says: "I don't exactly turn down blonds."

The right girl must be able to cook, but she need not be an expert—the prospective husband would be willing to be patient and let her cooking instinct develop. Applicants must be of a religious trend of mind—Presbyterians, Baptist or Methodists preferred. Widows need not apply. His choice must be as himself, unskilled in matrimony.

Flavor, Zest, Relish, Virginia tobacco has 'em all!

That's why a cigarette made entirely of Virginia tobacco has a lively, appetizing taste that no cigarette of mixed tobaccos can equal.
